Software Engineer

Description:

- TribusMed is a company that develops software for medical applications. I've been working on a project that helps doctors plan their surgeries. My task was mainly to extend and improve the front-end, I had to transfer Vue 2 to Vue 3, javascript to typescript. After this, I also helped developing the back-end in Rust.

Technologies used:

- JavaScript, TypeScript, Tailwind, CSS, HTML, Rust, Rust WebPack, Websocket, Vue 2 and 3, Node, and a few others.
